Re: First Amendment Coalition v. Leroy D. Baca
L.A.S.C. Case No.: BS141668

Dear Mr. Jassy:

This letter shall memorialize the parties understanding, pursuant to the settlement agreement, executed on November 13, 2013, on the above entitled matter. Specifically, it is understood by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, in regards to public records act requests, that:

The identity of visitors to inmates at the Los Angeles County Jails is information that falls under the California Public Records Act (CPRA). With regard to inmates who are also high-ranking public officials, as defined in Government Code section 82048 and also to include judicial officers and high-ranking officials of the federal government, given their unique status and the public's interest, there is a rebuttable presumption that the identity of their visitors while incarcerated shall be made available to the public under the CPRA.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation in this matter. If you have any questions or require further assistance, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

JOHN F. KRATTLI
County Counsel
