IN RE SEARCH WARRANTS

Case No. 2516763

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO QUASH AND GRANTING MOTION TO
UNSEAL SEARCH WARRANT 2516763

Date: July 18, 2019
Time: 2:00 p.m.
Dept.: 406

On July 18, 2019, Department 406 of the San Francisco Superior Court heard the Motion of Non-Party Journalist Bryan Carmody for Order Quashing Search Warrant, and the Application of Media Coalition to Unseal Search Warrant Materials. Thomas R. Burke of Davis Wright Tremaine LLP appeared on behalf of Mr. Carmody, Duffy Carolan of Jassy Vick Carolan LLP appeared on behalf of Media Coalition, and Ronnie M. Wagner, San Francisco Police Department Legal Division appeared on behalf of the San Francisco Police Department.

Having reviewed and considered the motions, papers, and arguments of the parties, the Court ORDERS the following:

The Motion to Quash the search warrant is GRANTED. The San Francisco Police Department will not use and will destroy any and all information obtained by warrant 2516763. An affidavit attesting to the destruction will be filed with the Court and served on the parties by August 1, 2019.

The Motion to Unseal warrant 2516763 is GRANTED, except for one portion of the affidavit that will be redacted. The redacted portion begins and includes the last line on page 8 and continues through and includes the first five lines on page 9. Those six lines will be redacted from the unsealed affidavit. The San Francisco Police Department will redact and unseal the document by 10:00 a.m. on July 23, 2019.
